the concept of creative industries has developed considerable academic and policy momentum in the 21st century there has been a connection identified between the rise of creative industries and the urbanisation of the world's population particularly in relation to the significance of cities as sites of cultural production and consumption much of the work on creative industries and cities however has drawn upon imagined geographies about the relationship between creativity and place this collection draws together contributions that critically appraise recent urban cultural policy discourses as well as reflecting on the role of culture and creative industries in the future development of cities this book is based on a special issue of the information society an international journal the fj holden it's an unmistakable much loved and unique symbol of australia right up there with the pavlova don bradman's baggy green or christmas on the beach but how did it get this way exactly how did an american car company so accurately grasp australia's automotive pulse to create a car which is now an australian motoring icon right from the beginning holden understood the importance of brand the need to create a car for every purse and purpose the advent of the fj holden seen as australia's own car revolutionised australian automobility australian clamoured for the holden not just because it was a relatively affordable car but because it was seen as symbolic of the new post war era of increasing prosperity holden now enjoys a unique iconic status in the automotive culture of australia in this fascinating book part social history part corporate history part biography of a car wright tracks the elements that made general motors holden such a successful company from its beginnings in the 1920s and the boom in car ownership in the 1950s right through to the present day when a holden car an artistic re-invention of the much loved 1953 fj holden was the star car at the 2005 australian international motor show this is a must read story of opportunity inspiration and business genius for all motoring enthusiasts holden fans and car buffs

the day mark latham became leader of the labor party the pace of australian politics fired up a year later this loner would resign from the parliament a broken figure what happened in those twelve months to turn the country's most dynamic political performer into a sick and embattled man this is the story of that dramatic year the gut wrenching personal dramas the plots and intrigues the loyalties betrayed and a set of demons mark latham couldn't keep at bay emphasizing the changing patterns of conflict and accommodation resulting from the interaction of american and jewish values jews in america will interest anyone concerned with jewish identity and continuity in the twenty first century dickens and the spirit of the age considers the extent to which dickens and his work reflect the vibrant novelty of the middle third of the nineteenth century an age in which the modern world was shaped and determined it looks at the culture from which dickens sprang a mechanized and increasingly urbanized culture and it sees his rootlessness and restlessness as symptomatic of what was essentially new the period's political and technological enterprise its urbanization its new definitions of social class and social mobility and finally its dynamic sense of distinction from the preceding age although his fiction was rooted in traditions established and evolved in the eighteenth century dickens was uniquely equipped to remould the english novel into a new and flexible fictional form as a direct response to the social urban and political challenges of his time
